Metropolitan Nashville Police Department

Youth Services Division Parental Enforcement Program

PEP

Mission Statement:

It is the mission of the PEP Unit to ensure that Juvenile Offenders, who have been placed on probation and released to their parents, adhere to the conditions of probation and to enforce ordinances, laws, and court orders, holding parents accountable for the actions of their children.

The PEP Unit Fact Sheet

Officers in the PEP Unit are committed to reducing Juvenile Crime and Delinquency in Nashville.

Early Intervention is important for at-risk youths and minor offenders.

Under the Curfew Ordinance, parents can be held legally responsible for “knowingly or negligently” allowing the juvenile to violate curfew.

PEP unit officers may charge Parents violating the curfew ordinance.

PEP Unit Officers, in conjunction with Juvenile Probation Officers will be conducting Probation compliance checks. Parents of probationers who are not in compliance may be charged with contempt of court.
